

Our Corporate Manufacturing Excellence team has been presented Special Jury Award

We are pleased to announce that our Corporate Manufacturing Excellence team has been given the Special Jury Award in the CII Eastern Regional Productivity Awards 2022 by showcasing our flagship project, “My Area My Pride” and other manufacturing excellence drives which has significantly enhanced the productivity in the organisation.

This was a competition held by CII in March 2022. This award is given in recognition of the excellence showcased by various companies in terms of achieving efficiency.

This acknowledgement stands as a testimony to our focus and dedication at Berger Paints India towards sustained productivity. We shall continue our efforts towards improving productivity in our processes.
