

Berger Paints India recognised by Economics Times as one of the iconic brands of India

Berger Paints India is pleased to announce that we have been acknowledged as Economics Times Iconic Brands 2021. A virtual gathering was held on the 25th of June, 2021 to felicitate all the recipients.

The Economics Times Iconic Brands Summit celebrates those Indian businesses that have gone beyond the iconic status in their brand's growth journey. It covers the success stories of brands who have created a name for themselves and their organizations with their path-breaking ideas.

At Berger Paints India, innovation and customer focus have been our key endeavours, which has helped us become a truly iconic brand over the years. Excellent product quality and customer-centric service approach have made Berger Paints India a brand of preference for millions of households in the country.

We thank all our stakeholders whose support and belief in us have been instrumental in making this happen.
